M'NAB BEATEN BY THE BELL FORCES

Democratic Leader Loses the Chairmanship Fight

FRESNO, May 18.—Following another conference early this afternoon, which almost resulted in the disruption of the Los Angeles delegation in a series of factional fights, Mayor Harper, it is said, has withdrawn from the contest for temporary chairman.

Sixth District Caucus.

A caucus of the delegates from the Sixth Congressional District, at which all the counties except Kings were represented, was held at 10 o'clock this morning. Milton K. Young of Los Angeles addressed the meeting in behalf of the candidacy of Mayor Harper of that city for chairman from the general convention. The roll of counties was then called and it was unanimously decided to vote for Senator Stanford for chairman.

The caucus also declared George E. Cates of Stockton, and M. K. Harris of Fresno the choice for delegates from the Congressional district to the national convention. It had been expected that there would be four candidates, but the others directed that their names should not be presented. Messrs. Cates and Harris were then elected delegates to the national convention, and he agreed to make the race, provided he was nominated at the convention to be held next summer.

Harris will be formally elected at a district convention to be held later.

Cartwright for Congress.

The caucus unanimously declared in favor of the nomination of State Senator George W. Cartwright of Fresno for Congressman, and he agreed to make the race, provided he was nominated at the convention to be held next summer. It was declared the sense of the caucus that the general convention should adopt a resolution instructing the delegates to the national convention to vote for W. J. Bryan for the nomination for President as long as he should be a candidate for such nomination. All of the actions of the caucus were unanimous.

McNab's Surrender.

Harper will second the nomination of Stanford, who will be elected by acclamation. The Bell forces declare that when the organization's faction found that it could not muster the necessary votes to elect Harper and was facing certain defeat on the convention floor, McNab surrendered unconditionally. Mayor Harper and Nathan Cole Jr., both of Los Angeles, it is said, will be elected delegates at large to the national convention.

RUEF OFFERS NO EVIDENCE IN DEFENSE

Arguments Begun in Trial of the Former Boss

(Special to The Tribune.)
SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—The trial of Abraham Ruef, charged with offering a bribe to Supervisor Jennings Phillips in the Parkside franchise matter, came to a close with a snap that startled the prosecution at five minutes past 10 o'clock this morning. After their witnesses, G. H. Umbson, J. E. Green and William J. Dingee had been questioned in regard to some details and after W. H. Crocker was called and did not respond, Attorney Francis Heney said:

"That is all, your honor."
"Is that your case?" asked Attorney Ach.
"Yes," said Heney.
"Do you rest?" questioned Ach.
"Yes."

"So do we," Ruef stated that this course was taken because he and his counsel took the position that the prosecution had not made out a case. That the proof was incomplete and insufficient.

The written instructions prepared by the lawyers were handed to the court and Heney began his argument to the jury. It was evident that the prosecution was taken by surprise when Ruef declined to introduce testimony in his defense.

Testimony of Umbson.

The testimony of Umbson related to a letter written by him, concerning some of the business of the company, concerning which inquiry had been made during the trial.

Attorney Ach dismissed the subject as of small importance, dismissing the witness without a question. J. E. Green testified that W. H. Crocker was not present when he, Green, had a conversation with William J. Dingee concerning Mayor Schultz. He said that when he went to ask Mr. Dingee for a letter of introduction, the mayor was announced and so Joseph O'Brien one of his associates in the Parkside business was called from the door above to be present at the meeting.

"Mr. Dingee introduced us," said Green, "and then he, Dingee, retired from the room."

"No questions," said Attorney Ach. William J. Dingee testified that ac-

FLEET LEAVES HARBOR FOR NORTH IN DRIZZLING RAIN

Battleships to Depart for Orient on July 7

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—The Atlantic battleship fleet, under command of Rear Admiral Sperry, weighed anchor at 11:30 o'clock this morning and sailed out of San Francisco bay in a drizzling rain for Puget Sound.

The flagship Connecticut headed the column, which was made up of the following ships, the Nebraska and Wisconsin taking the places of the Alabama and Maine:

First squadron, first division—Connecticut, Kansas, Minnesota and Vermont.
Second division—Georgia, Nebraska, New Jersey and Rhode Island.
Second squadron, third division—Louisiana, Virginia, Ohio and Missouri.
Fourth division—Wisconsin, Illinois, Kearsarge and Kentucky.

Division Commanders.
Captain Walcott commands the second division and Captain Schroeder the fourth division.

The fleet is due at Puget Sound May 21. Eight of the vessels will visit Bellingham Bay, four will visit Port Angeles, three will go to Fort Townsend and one will go to the dry dock at Bremerton. Saturday, May 23, fifteen will rendezvous in the vicinity of Port Townsend and will proceed to an anchorage in the vicinity of Seattle. Wednesday, May 27, twelve of these ships will go from Seattle to Tacoma, but only four will remain at that point, the other eight continuing on out of the sound and down the coast again, arriving at San Francisco once more on Saturday, May 30. The ships which are left in the harbor will take their turn at the Bremerton dry dock and will then steam back to San Francisco, the last arriving, it is expected, not later than July 8.

For Orient July 7.

According to the itinerary given out by the Navy Department, the fleet will leave San Francisco for the Orient on July 7, going from here to Honolulu, where they will remain seven days. They will then proceed to Auckland, Sidney, Melbourne and Albany, spending over a month in Australian waters. Next they will visit the Philippines, where they will remain nine days, going thence to Yokohama, which it is expected to reach on October 11.

Leaving Yokohama at the end of a week's round of festivities and entertainments, the fleet will divide, the first squadron returning to Manila, while the second squadron makes a five days' run to Amoy, 666 miles away. The second squadron will spend six days at that port, leaving on November 1 and arriving at Manila November 7.

The fleet is scheduled to complete its cruise and sail into the harbor of New York on February 22, 1909.

FIREMAN IS OVERCOME BY SMOKE

Rescued by Fellow-Workers--Suspect Arrested--Many Homeless Today

Narrow escapes from death, the almost fatal asphyxiation of a fireman, thrilling rescues by fire fighters at the risks of their lives and the heroic act of a woman who rushed through blinding smoke to awaken the sleeping occupants of blazing home, were the features of a fire of incendiary origin in the flats at 1002, 1006 and 1010 Market street shortly after 12 o'clock last night.

Suspect Arrested.

The dramatic intensity of the sensational happenings was heightened during the progress of the fire by the report of two pistol shots fired at a man giving the name of William Thirkel by C. J. Orton of 778 Tenth street while Thirkel was making an attempt to force an entrance into the Orton home. Thirkel was arrested after a desperate struggle with six policemen, and was taken to the city prison, where he is held for investigation.

A man who had presumably started both of these fires and who is suspected of being responsible for last night's disastrous blaze, was seen running from the scene at Ninth and West streets, and a good description of the firebug has been furnished.

Three Strange Fires.

Since 11 o'clock Saturday night there have been three mysterious fires within a radius of three blocks of the scene last night. The first fire was started Saturday night in the home of Mrs. May Dolan, 1118 West street. Within a few hours another fire broke out in a home at Ninth and West streets.

CLERGYMAN CUTS HIS WIFE'S THROAT

Methodist Minister While Insane Kills Spouse

FAIRMONT, Va., May 18.—Temporarily insane, according to his own statement, the Reverend S. A. Coffman, aged 50 years, a prominent Methodist Episcopal clergyman, killed his wife early today by cutting her throat from ear to ear.

A moment after the crime, he says, he regained his senses and realized what he had done. He immediately surrendered himself and was locked up.

Had Just Closed Revival.

Rev. Mr. Coffman resides at Rosstown, about three miles from here, and is in charge of two or three local churches. His wife was a member of a prominent local family and was thirty-three years old. During the past week or two Rev. Mr. Coffman has been conducting a series of revival services. Yesterday he finished his revival and appeared well pleased with the result. About midnight he and his wife were discussing the services when suddenly he seized a poker and began striking her on the head.

Cut Her Throat.

There was a struggle, during which Mrs. Coffman succeeded in escaping from the house to a garden at the rear. She was followed closely, however, by her husband. Coffman had taken a knife with him, and when he had his wife powerless in his grasp he cut her throat from ear to ear, causing instant death.

According to a statement made by Coffman when he looked on the lifeless body of his wife his sanity was immediately restored and he realized what he had done.

SAYS SHE SAT ON THE LAP OF VENERABLE SENATOR PLATT

Miss Mae C. Wood Gives Racy Testimony on the Witness-Stand

NEW YORK, May 18.—Mae C. Wood, the Omaha girl who is suing United States Senator Thomas C. Platt for divorce, alleging that the Senator formally entered into a marriage contract with her on November 2, 1901, gave testimony in the suit today. The young woman was smartly attired and self-possessed. She identified copies of several letters which she said were received by her from Platt.

Affectionate Letters.

They were mainly of an affectionate nature, but in several there were interesting sentences on other affairs. In one communication was the phrase, "Your letter has cheered me up so that I am almost reconciled to Ollie's election."

A picture of the Senator was shown, upon the back of which was written, "To my little wife." Telling how this was written, Miss Wood said:

"Sat on His Lap."
"Well, I was sitting on his lap. Part

KICKED HIM RIGHT OUT

Mrs. Carl Oswald Tells the Police How She Suppressed an Ardent but Most Undesired Admirer.

Alleging that a man, known only to her as Knott, but whose last name is presumed to be Hanson, had made his way into her home uninvited and had made violent and unobjectionable love to her in the presence of her husband and her friends, Mrs. Carl Oswald told the police today that this morning she swore to a complaint, on which a "John Doe" warrant was issued, for the arrest of her alleged tormentor on a charge of battery.

Mrs. Oswald says that the man, who she described as a tall, thin, dark man, with a mustache, had become unduly affectionate, but when his advances were resisted by both herself and husband, he exhibited an ugly-looking knife, threatening to plunge it into her breast and her husband's back.

Kicked Him Out.

"But I was a match for him," proudly said Mrs. Oswald in explaining her grievances to the police, "for when he got too fresh I took him by the back of the neck, whirled him face about and kicked him out of the front door. My husband refused to show fight so I took the matter in my own hands."

According to Mrs. Oswald, she had a number of friends at her home last night. They were indulging in edibles and drinkables when the objectionable party, who is said to be in the employ of a pottery at the foot of Twenty-third avenue, walked into the house without even knocking and joined in the festivities. Shortly after his appearance he walked to where Mrs. Oswald was sitting, chatting with her guests, and kneeling at her side, took her hands in his and gazed affectionately into her eyes. Before he could find time to utter words of love, Mrs. Oswald, taken by surprise and blushing violently with anger and excitement, asked her admirer what he was up to.

Exhibited a Knife.

He didn't have time to reply, for by this time Oswald had reached his wife's side, gesticulating wildly and asking what his uninvited guest meant by his unbecoming actions. In reply to Oswald's questioning, Mrs. Oswald declared that the man whipped out his knife and in a loud tone of voice said he would use it if necessary.

"He said he would plunge the knife there," said Mrs. Oswald to Captain Peterson, pointing to her breast, "and there," placing her hands on her husband's back, Oswald having accompanied his wife to police headquarters. Mrs. Oswald declares that she knows the man only slightly and had never given him any reason for his act. Upon his arrest the unidentified admirer will be taken into the Police Court for an explanation of his love-making.

BEAUTIFUL HAVENS HOME LEASED FOR FIVE YEARS

Residence to Be Used by Private School

The Frank C. Havens home on Highland avenue, Piedmont, has been leased to Miss Ransom's school for five years. In July Mr. and Mrs. Havens will leave for the East, and will return in October, when they will occupy their new home on Oak Knoll, which will be ready for occupancy about that time. Oak Knoll is a tract of land directly opposite the Havens home, and consists of thirty or forty acres.

Miss Ransom settled the transaction last week. The Havens home will be used for the boarders who attend the school. A new building will be erected on the Havens property, consisting of eight school rooms and will be of the modern style of architecture. Julia Morgan is the architect. The building will be ready August 18, the beginning of the school term. The Havens home and the new building will, respectively, be used for the accommodation of Miss Ransom's pupils.

given the police. He is described as being tall and slender and wears a black mustache. No reason for his dastardly acts can be determined, and it is the opinion of the police that the man is demented. Detectives have been detailed to solve the mystery.

Women's Heroic Deed.

It was just after the hour of midnight that P. Duncan and his wife of 954 Myrtle street were returning to their home from an automobile ride when they saw the reflection of flames which had burst out in the basement of the flat at 1009 Market street. The flames had gained considerable headway. Mrs. Duncan bravely volunteered to rouse the sleeping occupants of the house while her husband drove his machine to the fire alarm box at Tenth and Market streets and turned in an alarm. Mrs. Duncan, holding a wrap about her face as protection against the smoke, rushed to the front door of the burning flat, which was occupied by T. Hensley and his family, and rang the door bell again and again until there was a response.

The brave woman then went to the flat at 1010 Market street, in which lives C. A. Scott and his family, and there aroused the sleeping occupants of the place.

Through the Smoke.

W. Weis, his wife and child, who live at 1902 Market street, had just returned from a trip to San Francisco. They were in the act of putting their child to bed when the flames from the adjoining building communicated to their home, breaking out with a roar through the bedroom windows. It was with difficulty that Weis succeeded in getting to a place of safety with his wife and child, he having to fight his way through blinding smoke. It was owing to the bravery of Mrs. Duncan that the occupants of the houses were aroused in time to save the greater part of their furniture.

Threatened Block.

Upon the arrival of the fire department it was seen that the fire threatened the entire block in the neighborhood and many lines of hose were soon run to the place and a flood of water directed at the burning houses. Fireman William T. Canty of truck No. 1 hurried up a ladder to the roof of the flat at 1002 Market street, and was directing the work of fighting the flames there, when he felt himself being overcome with smoke. He became suddenly dizzy and lost his bearings, being unable to locate the ladder by which he had made his ascent. He called loudly for aid, but the noise of the engines, the shouts of the firemen and the cries of the excited witnesses of the fire drowned his voice.

Rescued by Fireman.

In a short time he was missed and Fireman Sam Short of No. 1 engine, with Fireman Carroll of truck No. 1, bravely climbed through smoke and heat to the roof to rescue Canty, who was near death.

WILLIAM T. CANTY, FIRE TRUCK NO. 1.

The unconscious man was found with difficulty. Short, who had also prominently figured in the fire in Collins Bros' drug store in which Fireman Brandt lost his life, having stumbled over the prostrate form of Canty before he had been located. The two brave firemen then hurriedly lifted Canty to the top of the ladder, where other firemen were waiting to assist in the rescue. Canty soon recovered from his lacerating experience, but owing to weakness was unable to assist further in fighting the flames.

Canty's Fiance.

A pathetic scene was witnessed while Canty was lying in danger of asphyxiation and incineration on the burning roof. In some unknown manner, Miss Mary Hyde, the fiancee of Canty, had learned of the fire and the predicament of her sweetheart and reached the scene just as the firemen were removing the unconscious form of the man from the roof. The young woman was highly excited and wept. When Canty was borne safely to the ground she rushed to his side and directed the efforts of those who were restoring Canty to consciousness. It was not until Canty had been pronounced out of danger that Miss Hyde could be induced to return to her home.

Thirk Denies Charge.

When Thirk, who had been shot at by Orion, was questioned at police headquarters he said that he lived at 558 Myrtle street and had made a mistake in the Orion home for his own. He said that Orion had first poured a pitcher full of water on him and had then fired two shots at him, one of which whizzed dangerously close to his head. The police are inclined to doubt Thirk's story, which will be fully investigated.

The damaged buildings were owned by Geo. W. Austin, the real estate dealer. The loss has not as yet been determined, but is presumed to be in the neighborhood of $4000.

MAKES ASSIGNMENT FOR BENEFIT OF HIS CREDITORS

John H. Somers, Clothier, Forced to Go Out of Business in This City

John H. Somers, who for awhile conducted a clothing store at 333 Twelfth street in this city, did not make a success of his venture. In fact, he was obliged to call a meeting of his creditors, which was held last Friday in the rooms of the San Francisco Board of Trade. The creditors agreed to permit Somers to assign his stock to F. C. Towns, a representative of the Miller Clothing Company of Chicago.

The money paid for the stock will be turned over to the creditors and distributed among them by the San Francisco Board of Trade. By the adjustment thus effected proceedings in bankruptcy were avoided.

'COULDN'T HELP IT,' BRIDE CONFESSES AFTER ELOPING

Wedding License Secured Sunday Night

BERKELEY, May 18. — Fred Seaborn, a clerk in the auditing department of the Southern Pacific in San Francisco, living at 2423 Dana street, and Miss Jennie Love, daughter of Joseph C. Love, of 2332 Channing way, spent yesterday afternoon discussing the advisability of declaring a public engagement or eloping and surprising their friends. They decided on the latter course and with the promptness of youth, proceeded to Oakland to secure a marriage license.

It was Sunday, but Cupid was not to be balked by such a trifles. A deputy county clerk was dragged to the court house at 9 o'clock last night and all legal formalities complied with. Seaborn gave his residence at 2423 Dwight way, presumably in the interests of secrecy, as his family have not resided at that number in six months.

They were married by the Rev. Alfred L. Parsons, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, at 10 p. m.

Just an hour later word was conveyed to Mrs. Love that her daughter was married.

"I couldn't help it," was the confession from the bride over the telephone. The young people have not emerged from their hiding place to receive the congratulations of their friends.

Both are of age and this was probably one of the reasons why they did not take their parents into their little secret. At the Seaborn home, his mother declared that she knew nothing of the affair. Walter J. Seaborn, a brother of the youthful eloper, is assistant town clerk of Berkeley, and he states that his brother's elopement was a surprise to the whole family.

POLICE ARE PLACED TO PROTECT CARS

Many Acts of Lawlessness and Violence Mark the Progress of the Strike Now on in Cleveland.

Trolley Wires Are Cut, Crews Driven Off and Non-Union Men Attacked by the Strike Sympathizers.

CLEVELAND, May 18.—Many acts of lawlessness were committed in connection with the street car strike between midnight and dawn today. Trolley wires were cut, crews were driven from their cars, and in some instances non-union men were attacked by strike sympathizers.

Want Protection Guaranteed.

The Municipal Traction Company announced this morning that no further attempt would be made to operate cars in Lakewood until the authorities guaranteed protection for its men and cars.

Because of alleged discrimination against Lakewood by the Municipal Traction in the matter of fare, it is claimed that the authorities of the town make no effort to support lawless acts committed by strike sympathizers.

May Be Arbitrated.

After a conference that continued almost throughout the night between officers, headed by President Mahon of the street car men's union and members Bishop and Owen of the State arbitration board, it was stated unofficially that a formal proposition of arbitration would be made to President Dupont of the traction company, by the arbitration board on behalf of the men.

There was a marked increase in the number of cars operated by the company today.

Each car carried a policeman in the motorman's vestibule.

CONFESSES TO SLAYING THREE

Husband Falls Dead Over Wife's Body as Murderer Shoots Them Down for Their Money.

MATAWAN, N. J., May 18.—The prosecutor of Monmouth county announced today that Frank Zastera, the young farm hand, has made a confession that he killed Mr. and Mrs. William B. Shepherd and their servant, Miss Jennie Bendy, who were found murdered in Shepherd's farmhouse Saturday morning.

Zastera's statement is reported to be to the effect that he killed Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd in order to get the money which he knew Shepherd had.

According to Zastera, he waited in the parlor of the house Saturday morning until Mr. Shepherd came downstairs to warm a bottle of milk for her baby, and as she was returning upstairs shot her in the side and head with her husband's shotgun. At the sound of the shooting Shepherd came running downstairs. Zastera was standing in the hall with the gun in his hands and when Shepherd was halfway down fired into his side.

Falls on Wife's Body.

Shepherd dropped on the stairs and his body fell upon that of his wife. Zastera then entered the kitchen with the gun and, meeting Jennie Bendy, shot her in the breast. All three were killed instantly.

Zastera then went in search of Shepherd's money, ransacking the house. Zastera is said to have told the authorities that he had the money somewhere about the house or grounds, but they have been unable to confirm his story in that respect, although they searched both the house and the grounds.

Feared Zastera.

Relatives of Jennie Bendy have told the authorities that Miss Bendy was afraid of Zastera, and told them that he had attempted to kill her not long ago. Miss Bendy's sister said that Jennie had asked her to stay with her nights in order to keep Zastera from repeating his attack.

Zastera told the prosecutor that he was born in Hungary; that his parents live in New York City and that he was formerly a student of the Art Students' League and of the National Academy of Design in New York.

BELL HURLS THE GAGE OF BATTLE

Gavin McNab and His Followers Say He Is Too Ambitious.

FRESNO, Cal., May 18.—Almost the moment that Timothy Spellacy, chairman of the State central committee, calls the Democratic State convention to order at 2 o'clock this afternoon, the fight for the temporary chairmanship and control of the convention between the McNab forces and the anti-organization faction led by Theodore Bell will be on.

Incidentally the test of strength upon the floor of the convention will determine who shall control the Democratic party of California.

Bell Hailed as New Leader.

Gavin McNab of San Francisco and his organization have controlled it for years. Bell is hailed by the country delegates as the new leader in Democratic State politics and declares that McNab's domination will end today.

After two hours' conference last night, between McNab and Bell, which resulted in the gage of battle being thrown down to the organization by Bell, no renewal of peace overtures were made by either side this morning, nor are they expected.

Harper of Los Angeles.

Mayor A. C. Harper, of Los Angeles, the organization candidate for the chair, will most likely be nominated by leaders. Dockwilder of Los Angeles. Bell will personally nominate State Senator J. E. Sanford of Ukiah, upon whom the country delegates have centered to preside over the convention.

McNab has the advantage of having 44 out of 62 votes of the San Francisco delegation will control the Alameda and Sacramento delegations, and will have a majority of the votes from Los Angeles.

Thomas F. Hickey, chairman of the San Francisco Democratic county committee, predicts Harper's election by a majority of 125 votes. The Bell forces, on the other hand, equally are as confident of electing Sanford.

Much Bitter Feeling.

Much bitter feeling is being engendered by the split among the Democrats and the fight for chairman may be carried into the election of delegates-at-large.

McNab declares that Bell has become inordinately ambitious because of his popularity in the Democratic ranks, but asserts that he will not oppose him for delegates-at-large.

Both camps were active early this morning. McNab and his principle followers were particularly active. Although up until 2 o'clock, the San Francisco leader was out before 7 this morning. Indications this morning are that the contest for supremacy in the convention will be close.

While there is some talk of an unplanned delegation to the national convention there is a very strong Bryan sentiment and it is reasonably expected that an instructed delegation will be sent.

FRESNO, May 18.—The fight between the Gavin McNab organization and the anti-organization faction headed by Theodore A. Bell of Napa, Democratic candidate for Governor two years ago, and who is aspirant to the temporary chairmanship of the Democratic national convention at Denver, for the control of the Democratic State convention which meets here today, aroused great interest among Democrats.

Aggressive Fight.

There is a serious breach between the organization and anti-organization forces over the question of who shall be temporary chairman of the Fresno convention. Mayor A. C. Harper of Los Angeles is the candidate supported by the organization, while Theodore A. Bell has put forward State Senator J. E. Sanford of Mendocino county and has the aggressive support of the country delegates.

After several attempts last evening to reconcile the antagonistic factions, followed by a second conference at the Hughes Hotel, between Gavin McNab, ex-congressman, Thomas J. Geary, Thomas J. Hickey, chairman of the San Francisco county committee, and Bell, who was accompanied by Judge John E. Baker of Modoc county, which lasted from 10 o'clock until after midnight, it was announced that no agreement was reached.

Bell Refuses.

The organization, headed by McNab, asked that Bell withdraw Sanford for chairman, agree to the election of Mayor Harper, and allow the organization to elect three of the four delegates at large. In return Bell was to be elected the fourth delegate at large, endorsed by the convention for temporary chairman of the Denver convention in July, and be given the organization's support for the chairmanship of the State convention in August. This was refused by Bell.

Upon coming from the conference McNab stated that Bell would not listen to any terms and declared that he was unreasonable in his demands.

"He Wants Everything."

"He wants everything," he said. "The conference resulted in nothing and will mean a test of strength on the floor of the convention."

McNab predicted that Harper would be elected by a majority of 100 votes.

Bell said: "I was for Sanford for chairman long before Mayor Harper entered the fight. I see no reason why I should back down or ask the Senator to withdraw. I shall support him on the floor and give the convention the opportunity to decide for or against him."

At an informal caucus late tonight the delegates of the Sixth Congressional district endorsed Sanford for chairman. The caucus also endorsed Senator George W. Cartwright, author of the Cartwright bill, passed by the last Legislature, as candidate for Congress from the Sixth district.

Delegates-at-Large.

It was generally believed that Nathan Cole Jr. of Los Angeles would be elected delegate-at-large, without opposition, the other candidates beside Bell being Robert M. Fitzgerald, an organization man of Oakland; E. E. Bush of Hanford, and J. H. Barry of San Francisco, but the fight which promises to develop upon the floor of the convention tomorrow afternoon may make many changes.

The failure of the McNab forces and the anti-organization faction to come to some amicable agreement will mean that the former will attempt to defeat Bell for delegate-at-large to Denver, and endeavor to prevent his endorsement by the convention for the temporary chairmanship of the National Democratic convention.

The convention will be composed of 535 delegates, and will be called to order at 2 o'clock in the Burton Opera House by Timothy Spellacy.

District Delegates.

The Eighth Congressional district delegates will also hold their conventions here today and elect two delegates and two alternates to the National convention.

Judge John E. Baker of the Superior Court of Modoc county, will be one of the delegates from the First district and the other candidate is J. F. Quinn of Humboldt. In the Second district W. P. Lynch is said to be decided upon for one of the delegates, and J. S. Zumwalt and Thomas Fox are candidates for the second delegate, with the chances apparently in favor of the latter.

S. J. Still of Berkeley, Robert McKinnon of Oakland and F. T. Gavin are among the candidates in the Third district. Bart Schlesinger, a prominent attorney of San Francisco, it is said, desires to be one of the two delegates from the Fifth district, while in the Fourth Charles L. Delman and S. M. Van Wyck are mentioned as candidates.

In the Sixth district there are three candidates, Assemblyman J. C. Davis of Hollister, the Democratic leader in the lower house of the Legislature, George E. Catt of Stockton and M. B. Harris of Fresno.

The Seventh District has several candidates, among them Isadore Dockwilder, M. K. Young, Martin Rotonski, Mattison Jones and Timothy Spellacy, chairman of the State Central Committee.

Aspires to Be Boss.

There is a general belief that Theodore A. Bell aspires to be boss of the Democratic party throughout the State, and that he will fight Gavin McNab to a finish. It looks as if this question of boss-ship of the Bourbons of the State would be one of the leading issues before the State convention when it meets here today. Bell has been at work throughout the State developing a plan of campaign by which he hopes to capture the convention. He has for his chief lieutenant here on the ground, Al McCabe, Deputy District Attorney of San Francisco. This association of McCabe and

McCabe say that less than two years ago McCabe was plotting William H. Langdon over this State with a view to defeating Bell for Governor. Now he is making Bell's fight as against the organization, and the question is being asked, "What Democrat is he trying to defeat now?"

Bell's Ambition.

At a caucus of Democrats Bell unfolded the program of his ambitions. It appeared that the former Congressman wishes to go as a delegate-at-large to the national convention, also wishes to be chairman of that convention, would select the state central committee for California, appoint its chairman and secretary, and also its executive committee. He generously concedes, however, the sergeant-at-arms of the State central committee to the regular organization.

Might Pull Straws.

Some of the caucusing Democrats were inclined to be amused at this generous offer of Bell, and suggested that former Congressman Tom Geary and Frank H. Gould pull straws for the office of sergeant-at-arms. Other members of the caucusing body resented the claims of Bell as audacious and even insulting to the older members of the party.

Geary's Sharp Tongue.

It is reported that Tom Geary addressed Bell in most vigorous language, shaping his remarks to the modest demands made by a member of the party who had already been generously favored by it, while others who had contributed their time and money to the interests of the organization were to be pushed aside to make way for the new would-be boss.

In addition to this question of boss-ship, that of instructing delegates to the National Convention to vote for Bryan seems to be interesting the delegates the most. There is a strong undercurrent of feeling here against sending an instructed delegation to Denver, but as the balloting on this question will be open and not secret, there is little doubt but that a pledged delegation will be sent from California to the National Convention.

Instructed Delegation.

The southern delegation, and especially that of Los Angeles, which is the largest in the convention, is particularly insistent upon an instructed delegation. Nathan Cole, leader of the Los Angeles delegation, is a personal friend of William J. Bryan, and it is largely through his activities that the southern delegates have become so earnest in their demands for a pledged delegation to Denver.

ACT BY STEGER HOLDS AUDIENCE

Story of Wandering Musician Delights Large Crowd of Orpheum-Goers.

Lovers of art in vaudeville will have a rich treat at the Oakland Orpheum this week in Julius Steger's performance. Steger is one of the first magnitude stars and fortunately enough is able to make good even the most extraordinary managerial claims. Yesterday he made his first appearance before an Oakland audience, putting on his beautiful playlet, called "The Fifth Commandment."

The Sunday crowds at the Orpheum are notoriously fond of lively stuff, swift dancing and comedy of the rollicking sort. There were some who thought that Steger's quiet playlet would be almost too fine for appreciation from the Sunday multitude, but these people were mistaken. The power of Steger's art was shown in a way to hold the attention of the big audience from the rise to the fall of the curtain on his act.

Quiet resigned as he played, the silence being almost uncanny times. The atmosphere of the play, which told the story of a wandering musician's discovery of his long-lost child under strangely pathetic circumstances, was almost numbing, but at no time did the interest in Steger's movements diminish on this account.

Character Study.

The audience listened and watched the unfolding of the story, perfected under the ravishing strains of music that came when Steger sang and his harpist played. When the curtain dropped on a rarely effective climax the applause was so tremendous that it proved the falsity of the notion that vaudeville crowds can be entertained alone by knock-out stuff, or riotous comedy. Steger is likely to draw big audiences during the week, and is especially popular with those who take keen delight in a finely drawn character study, staged with almost perfect appreciation of the right thing in art.

The vaudeville bill yesterday was not lacking in the good things that go to make up the usual Sunday program at the Orpheum.

There were some wonderful acrobats on the stage in the persons of the eight Bedouin Arabs, imported, according to the management, by the Orpheum Company for exploitation on the circuit. The small boys of the town will be intensely interested in the performance which Shields and Rogers give. These men do a Cowboy and Indian stunt in the way week.

JULIUS STEGER, In 'The Fifth Commandment,' at the Oakland Orpheum.

of lassoing and lariat throwing that is certainly unique.

Good Comedians.

Rockaway and Conway, who are new comers, proved to be pretty fair comedians. They had a sort of sidewalk conversation act, Rockaway being the male member of the team. Miss Conway, a pretty girl, supplied a good foil for his fun making.

There were cheers in plenty when the motion pictures of the Atlantic fleet were shown and the parade of the jockies ashore was revealed on the screen.

Some pleasing toe dancing was done by Agnes Mahr.

The crowd enjoyed Avery and Hart's "Darktown stunts" immensely, and the crowd also took delight in the acrobatic tumbling of Rosalie and Dorote, who are as clever in this line as any who have yet come to this theater.

Kennedy and Rooney caught the fancy of the crowd with their eccentric comedy and smart dancing.

The management has made announcement that Mr. Julius Steger is to remain at the Oakland Orpheum for but one week.

LIVERMORE IS BUILDING MODERN SEWER SYSTEM

Bonds Issued to Be Taken by the State

LIVERMORE, May 18. — There is scarcely more gratification here over the advent of the Western Pacific railroad, whose tracks were extended to the center of the city on Saturday last, than there is over the inauguration of a sewer system which will reach every section of the place.

This system had been made possible by the issuance of bonds to the amount of $35,000 which was sustained by a vote of the people at the polls of 515 to 13. The majority was so overwhelming in favor of the improvement that those who voted against the proposition have since been silent as to the stand they had previously taken on the subject.

Old System of Sanitation.

The advantages which are to be derived from the introduction of a system of sewage may well be imagined when it is taken into consideration that, heretofore, this city has resorted to primitive methods in the matter of sanitation.

There doubtless have been reasons for this, but for a long time there has been a feeling that these conditions should be removed and that the city should be enabled to avail herself of scientific methods for the purpose of preserving the health of her citizens and at the same time show that she was disposed to take one of the means of indicating that she was enterprising and progressive.

Result of Agitation.

For a time there was a feeling that old conditions were satisfactory and that there was little to be gained by making any change but the matter was taken up by a number of the leading citizens and there was such an agitation as resulted in the vote referred to above.

Those of the residents who were doubtful of the advisability or the wisdom of abandoning the old-time methods of sanitation had their doubts resolved by the presentation of a map which had been prepared by the acting city engineer, F. J. Roland, which showed that it was the purpose of those who favored the project to run the proposed sewers in such a manner as to enable every house in the town to be connected with them and at the expenditure of only a very reasonable amount on the part of the owner and tax payer. There was a great deal of unanimity and pleasure among the citizens when this showing was made and there is even a greater feeling in this regard now that the project is on its way to be carried out.

Reaching Every Home.

The sewers will cover a distance of one mile and a half from one end of the town to the opposite extremity. There will be main lines of pipe and, on either side of these there will be laterals to the side streets which will bring the drain to every home and place of business.

From the upper to the lower part of the city, in which latter the sewer system will terminate in an aseptical plant, there is a fall of twenty-five feet which is ample to enable a satisfactory flow.

Pipe Dimensions.

The main sewer will be a pipe twelve inches in diameter and the laterals will be respectively six, eight and ten inches in diameter, as may be required by the necessities of the property to be served.

While $35,000 has been voted for the improvements, only $30,000 will be expended in the construction of the system, the remainder being used in other ways as may be demanded by the situation.

No Contract.

Good Comedians.

Rockaway and Conway, who are new comers, proved to be pretty fair comedians. They had a sort of sidewalk conversation act, Rockaway being the male member of the team. Miss Conway, a pretty girl, supplied a good foil for his fun making.

There were cheers in plenty when the motion pictures of the Atlantic fleet were shown and the parade of the jockies ashore was revealed on the screen.

Some pleasing toe dancing was done by Agnes Mahr.

The crowd enjoyed Avery and Hart's "Darktown stunts" immensely, and the crowd also took delight in the acrobatic tumbling of Rosalie and Dorote, who are as clever in this line as any who have yet come to this theater.

Kennedy and Rooney caught the fancy of the crowd with their eccentric comedy and smart dancing.

HEIRESS-HUNTING PRINCE FAILS IN MISSION

Has Wardrobe and All Personal Belongings Attached for $150,000 Debt.

(BY PAUL VILLIERS.)

PARIS, May 18.—Prince Victor of Thurn and Taxis seems to be persecuted by a Nemesis which follows him everywhere. Having just escaped from the London courts, where he had to appear to defend himself in an action brought against him by Miss Josephine Moffat, an American girl, who claimed he married her and deserted her, he came to Paris, only to find himself in an even worse plight, for now he has nothing but the clothes on his back.

The Prince's whole wardrobe and all his personal belongings have been seized by the police on the complaint of Miss Josephine Moffat, who declares she is going to sell them at public auction, unless Prince Victor settles with her. The complainant had a fortune of $150,000, and having made the acquaintance of the Comtesse de Thurn and Taxis, was persuaded by them to advance money to Prince Victor in order that he might be enabled to contract a wealthy marriage.

Russian Mine.

She says that a friend of his proposed as a guarantee for the advances seven-seventeenth of a manganese mine concession at Ivanovsk in Russia. Mile Kemper declares that she advanced $150,000, while, according to the prince, it only amounted to $44,000.

Mile Kemper, who is a middle-aged woman, found the prince was in Paris and staying at the Hotel de France et de Choiseul. She promptly went to her lawyer and instructed him to levy distraint on the clothes and personal belongings of the prince. A bailiff went to the room occupied by the prince and levied distraint on the prince's valise and all the clothes he was not standing up in.

Prince Embarrassed.

The prince was exceedingly annoyed at this proceeding for he found it extremely awkward to be deprived of his wardrobe. However, an arrangement was made to come to.

The bailiff took a careful inventory of all the prince's belongings and then offered to make the prince the man in possession of his own clothes. This is the custom in the case of distraints in France.

The prince accordingly accepted the responsibility of being placed in charge as legal custodian of his own clothes. But he cannot remove his clothes from the hotel unless the distraint is removed, and Mile Kemper refuses to remove it.

In an interview Mile Kemper said "I seized the prince's belongings because he is a foreigner with no residence of his own in France, and his effects constitute my only security. I advanced the money to the prince to enable him to contract a wealthy marriage with an American heiress, understood to be Miss Vanderbilt."

HUNDREDS OF ACTORS ARE OUT OF WORK AND MONEY

Summer to Be Hard One for Thespians

NEW YORK, May 18.—The coming summer gives every promise of being the hardest one in years for members of the theatrical profession. It has been a long time since there has been as disastrous a season theatrically as the one just closed and there is no prospect of any better times for the actor for many months, in fact, until after the election next fall.

In the height of the season it was estimated that more than two thousand actors and actresses were out of work in New York, the largest number of unemployed in the profession for many years.

A large number of companies that started in the season with every prospect of success were forced to close soon after the coming of the financial depression which followed close upon the opening of the theatrical season. For this season, even of actors that were employed early in the season, thousands were forced to be satisfied with very short seasons and were, therefore, unable to lay by the amounts required to keep them through the summer when work in their profession is slack.

The actor's fund, the great charity of the theatrical profession, is not in a position to carry on the work which it will be asked to do, for at the annual meeting held a few days ago a deficiency of more than $20,000 on the year's work was reported. The question of living through the summer is a serious one to hundreds of players, and Coney Island and other similar resorts are overrun with members of the profession who are seeking work of any sort that will provide food for the summer months. But in spite of the efforts of managers and others to do all in their power to assist those out of employment and money, it is certain there will be considerable suffering among members of the profession during the coming months.

TRIBUNE DAY WAS MUCH APPRECIATED

To the Editor of THE TRIBUNE: You will pardon the liberty I take in writing, but I feel it is nothing more than common courtesy to at least a few words of appreciation for the pleasure TRIBUNE Day at Idora Park gave me. I am a stranger in almost a strange land, and have taken THE TRIBUNE since coming to California in December. Way in the heart of the Klondike, in Dawson, my husband is on the editorial staff of a paper, so I have a fellow feeling for THE TRIBUNE. I am sure from the throngs in the park your paper is most popular. Everyone sang the praises of THE TRIBUNE. Again thanking you for your thoughtfulness for the public, MRS. Rawhide Residence of Former Statesman Will Be Sold to the Highest Bidder.

RENO, May 18.—William Stewart, former United States Senator from Nevada, announces in an advertisement that his home in Rawhide is for sale or for rent to the highest bidder. This is the end of the ambition of the old statesman to again wrest fortune from the hills of the State which in the past has honored him with its highest gift. At one time he was rated among the highest men in Bullfrog but held on when the depression started, and stocks which would have netted him a competency went down until now it seems as if all has been wiped out.

OAKLAND DROPS TWO GAMES TO SEALS

VAN HALTREN'S ERROR LOSES AFTERNOON FROLIC | HALEY'S 'DIPPY' PLAY TOSSES OFF MORNING CONTEST

SOME VALID REASONS FOR A GANS-NELSON FIGHT

The public wants to see it. There is still some doubt about that forty-two round Goldfield fight. Nelson is the only great lightweight in the world whom Gans has not knocked out.

GANS-NELSON FIGHT WOULD MAKE GREAT DRAWING CARD

This Pair of Ring Warriors in a Forty-Five Round Contest Would Pack Any Size House.

BY T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

ARE the pugilistic promoters suffering from an acute attack of Demencia Americana, or are the fight fans in a somnambulistic state? Either one or the other condition exists, or such matches as are being made would not be thought of.

Five Aces in the Deck.

There may not be five aces in a deck of cards, but if it ever looked like there was then there are five aces in the deck that Gans and Attell mean to play and the only "come ones" in such a game would be the public.

Nelson Ready for Battle.

Nelson has on every occasion expressed his willingness to fight Joe Gans. Gans is making the big talk about guarantees, side bets, etc., etc. It wasn't thus in the old days. When fighting was absolutely on the level, the millmen, who were berserks of the glove would meet in some grog shop, appoint their handlers, make side bets and fight. There were no ifs, ands and hawing and sawing over details.

Do Pictures Lie?

The first films were shown in a McAllister street theater. There was a select party of boxing men present. Not one of them could see the foul, and they said so the first time they were asked. Then, those who had Gans' interests at heart and who hated Billy Nelson moved among the crowd, and presto. They said with lamb-like voices that it looked as though it might have been a foul.

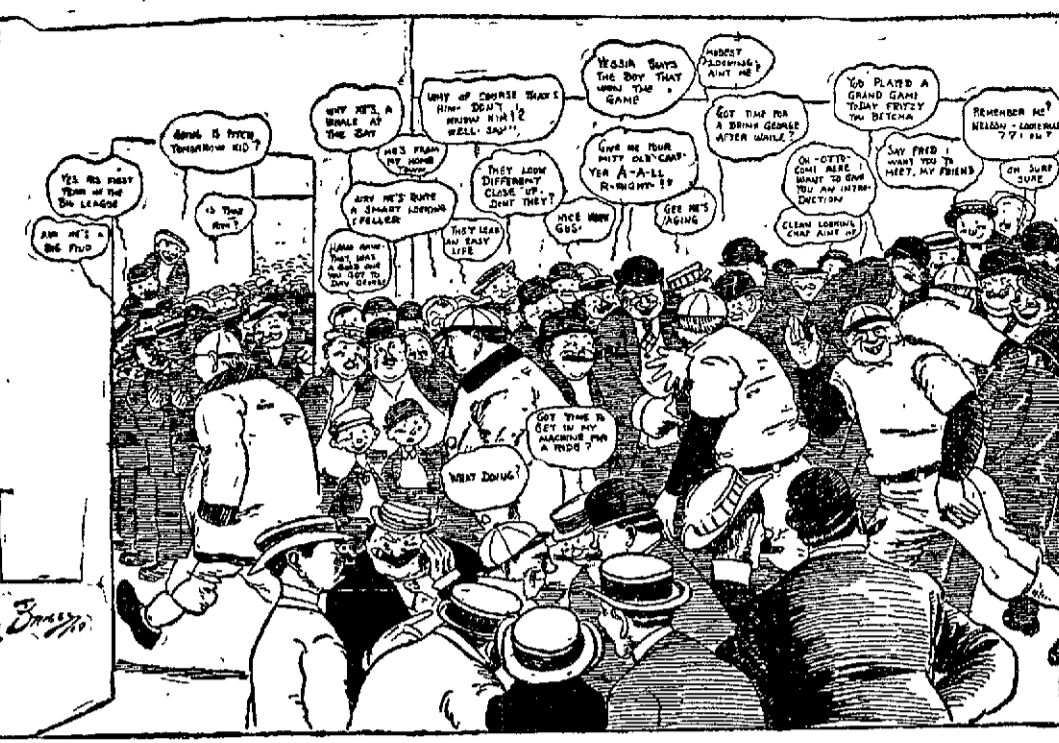

Nelson on the Level.

No matter what they say about Nelson he has always fought on the level. Who can say that Nelson was ever mixed up in a crooked match, and who ever had as many chances to go out and bludge the public as this same Nelson?

Ketchel-Papke Match in Doubt

MILWAUKEE, May 18.—From present indications there will be no Ketchel-Papke fight in Milwaukee. Manager Joe O'Connor, who is here in the interests of Ketchel, is making demands for his man, that Manager Jones for Papke will not listen to O'Connor's demands for the appearance of his man, and Jones says he will listen to no such arrangement.

HOW THE VICTORS ARE GREETED AFTER THE GAME

WITH THE OBSERVER

BY T. P. MAGILLIGAN

Because of a lack of spirit in playing the great national game of baseball Oakland lost two games they should have won yesterday. If the home team wishes to make any great and lasting impressions in baseball some shuffling and shaking up is needed in the ranks of the Nameless Nine.

Ginger up, Oakland!

Get busy. There is no time to lose with the natural material at hand Oakland should be leading, but they're not going to do it by sleeping overtime, undetermined and all the time. A little "pep" is badly needed.

MAX FIGMAN SCORES BIG SUCCESS IN COMEDY

GOOD SUPPORT IS GIVEN ACTOR

"The Man on the Box" Wins
Audiences at Performances in Macdonough.

MAX FIGMAN, AT THE MACDONOUGH.

Max Figman achieved another of his artistic triumphs in Oakland yesterday in the presentation of his successful play, "The Man on the Box," at the Macdonough Theatre. He has made many friends in Oakland and they were present yesterday at the matinee and last night's performances to pay their tribute.

"The Man on the Box," which play is fully as clever as the book which did so much to make its author, Harold Macdonough, famous. It has the true comedy element throughout, and Mr. Figman does not overlook a single feature in his rendering of the lines. It is clean humor, full of pathos and brilliant epigrams, and teeming with situations full of delicious comedy.

Mr. Figman is a pastmaster in the art required in the role of "Bob" Worburton, the hero of the play. This young dare devil lieutenant in a spirit of adventure, disguises himself as a coachman and drives his sister's friend home. Just at leaving her at the house he steals a kiss. His subsequent arrest and hearing before a straight-faced police judge is one of the best features of the play. Particularly humorous is the end of the scene where the judge insists that he return to her the thing he stole—which was the kiss.

Plans Her Revenge.

The young lady, knowing the young man to be of the "quality," plans her revenge by offering him the position of coachman in her home. His subsequent adventures and the strain of humor growing out of his mistakes and lectures for "assuming" in his position form a splendid chain of laughable incidents. It can be truly said to be a play without an element of sorrow and rich in the

ALL HOPE ENDS AT PENITENTIARY, SAYS JUDGE

Court Considers Probation Plea
Made by Confessed Thief of Diamonds.

Fred Stephenson, choir leader in the Reorganized Church of Latter Day Saints of this city, who recently pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny asked for probation this morning in Superior Judge Ogden's court. Probation Officer Ruess filed his report this morning with the court and he declared in it that Stephenson has always borne a good record.

Courage Failed Him.

He claims he heard someone coming while he was doing this and, fearing that it would be thought that he was trying to steal them, he put them in his pocket and did not have the moral courage to return the gems to their owner.

Judge Ogden stated this morning, after reading the probation officer's report, that he was inclined to favor probation, but that he desired to have a week to consider the matter. The case was then postponed accordingly.

Judge Ogden said in part in speaking of the case: "My recent visit to Folsom, where all those poor fellows are held, makes me feel that long consideration should be given to every case before a person is committed there. All the prisoners seemed to be hardened and without hope, and I felt that there was a sign on the gate of the prison which read, 'All who enter here leave hope behind.'"

Manager Fitzgerald of the Coast Counties Power and Light Company, appeared in court this morning and declared that he believed that Stephenson has a good character and stated that he would give him employment in Santa Cruz if he is released on probation.

SANTA FE ARCHBISHOP DIES AT AGE OF 63

CHICAGO, May 18.—Most Rev. Peter Bourgade, archbishop of Santa Fe, died at a hospital here yesterday of heart failure, aged 63 years.

As soon as practicable, Wallace stopped his car, and picking up his victim, sped to the German hospital, three blocks away, where it was found she had sustained a badly lacerated face, contusions of the body, internal injuries and a possible fracture of the skull.

Coroner Drops Dead: Redding—Coroner J. F. Peterson of Tehama county fell dead this afternoon in Red Bluff. He was an ex-smarman, and was riding on his wagon, when he suddenly fell from his seat into the street. Before bystanders reached him he was dead. Apoplexy is assigned as the cause of death. Peterson was 32 years old, and had been coroner for two years. He leaves a widow and son.

Passed Worthless Check: Vallejo—Mrs. Peter Cataloni, who conducts a small retail and dress-making enterprise on the outskirts of this city, is out $11 as the result of her trusting an alleged market buyer. The man claiming to be a buyer for an Oakland house, drove out to her place yesterday and purchased $15 worth of goods. He gave in payment a check for $25, which Mrs. Cataloni accepted and gave him $11 in change. The check was drawn on the Bank of Suisun in the name of W. Howard and is worthless.

Dies on Desert: San Bernardino—Newton Baer, a watchman employed at the Saratoga Springs Mining Company, a San Francisco corporation, was found dead twenty miles north of the springs on the desert Friday. Baer had been in search of stray horses two weeks ago.

Will Irrigate Imperial Valley: Los Angeles—The most stupendous irrigation system in the world, costing for an outlay of $5,000,000 on constructive work alone, and reclaiming 1,500,000 acres of desert land, is the definite project of E. H. Harriman in the Imperial Valley. With water, this land will become the most fertile in the American continent, and will keep in value from nothing to as high as $1500 an acre.

Clear Vision

Chinn-Beretta glasses give remarkably clear vision, objects stand out sharply, outlines are clearly defined, things look right, there is no eyestrain or headache.

And this is especially true of the KRYPTOK, a far and near glass that, without visible lines across it or pieces pasted to it, gives far and near vision in one pair of glasses even to those who are advanced in years.
